Randy, please forward to Mike Durkin at J5. I suspect this won't go thru to him because I'm 8-bit and he's 7-bit (whatever that means)

Aloha, Update follows:

1. Initial IPR with DCINC went very well. Latest itinerary is attached at bottom. More detail in this version. CINC's IPR scheduled for 19 June. I'll have things pretty firm after that.

2. Good comms with COL Wolf at DAO Beijing. He seems satisfied with planning thus far.

OK to release

- PLA pushing for a free day in San Francisco (between San Diego and Alaska). I will recommend to the CINC that we politely say no. No military purpose, hard to justify to Mr. Citizen. They are free to travel there after Alaska or on their way home.

3. Invitation Letter as formal follow-up to invitation message was dispatched this week.

4. Need your opinion of the following proposed itinerary event: observe flight operations on board carrier. Is this too much access for them? The PLA has little ability to reciprocate even if they had the inclination--which they don't. So far, this is the only agenda item under consideration that is an obvious reciprocity issue. Once we get all itinerary set, I'll forward for your comment.

yes
- I will don't do it!

5. More to follow.
